

Beaverhead Meats

Dillon, Montana

Offered at $170,000

Beaverhead Meats has been locally owned for 25 years. This is a great business opportunity with an outstanding reputation for reliability, service, and product. All the equipment is in great shape and will transfer with the sale. The business is in a leased building containing the walk-in coolers and rail system for moving heavy carcass in and out of the coolers. Purchasing the building from the current owner is a possibility. Please contact us for more information on this great Dillon business opportunity.

Dillon, Montana was recently rated the #8 city in the U.S. to live for the outdoors person. This was the only wild game processing business in town last year and does an enormous amount of business during the hunting season.
